When and how are Speakers selected?

There are over 60 sessions taking place at NAB Show Shanghai, including NAB Show- Global Innovation Exchange: Shanghai, China Post | Production Conference, Dynamic Cube Digital Content Conference, and several conferences produced by sponsors. Each Program is different, but typically Speakers are selected by the NAB Show Shanghai Conference Program Advisory Group, industry surveys and the all-industry Call for Speakers. The NAB Show Shanghai Program is finalized by the middle of March, with most speakers selected by that time.

What are the technical specifications for my Session?

Room specifications vary depending on the location. You will be able to review the audio-visual and room specifications for your Session upon being notified of acceptance.

Do you have to be an Exhibitor to submit a speaker proposal?

No. Anyone can submit a speaker within any of the established sessions.

Can we submit a proposed list of panelists and moderator for a session?

Yes. This can be done in the submission process.

Can we submit speakers/instructors for Post|Production Conference?

Yes, you can submit your application to be instructors for China Post|Production Conference.

Are all sessions made up of panels?

No. All sessions are made up of both independent speech and panels. We also welcome you to submit your creative idea to engage audience to your presentation.

It says there are moderated panel presentation, keynote presentations and conference track presentation. What is the format for each type of presentation?

Keynote Presentation: Keynote presentation last for 60-90 mins. You are the main presenter of the session.

Presentation at Conference Track: Presentation at conference track will last 30-45 mins. You are the main presenter of the session or you can invite your friend to present at your session together.

Moderator: As a moderator in a moderated panel presentation, you are moderating a panel of speakers in a session. The moderator does have the opportunity to work with speakers on the subject and flow of the session.

Is there someone we can speak with to discuss suggestions on how to improve our session (or submission) in 2017?

Yes. Email a request to: jyin@nabshowshanghai.com

If I submit a proposal after the deadline, can I be considered for the next Show or will I need to re-submit?

If your proposal's quality is very relevant to the success of this year's conference, it will still be considered.

However, you need to re-submit your proposal for next Show, as each year's key words and topics will be different.

Is there a maximum number of speakers we can submit?

No. Multiple speakers can be submitted.

When will I be notified if my speaker submission has been chosen?

All submitters will be notified no later than March 30, 2016.
